Casa Pacheco (CAL-140)

History: Built in 1840 by Don Francisco Pacheco who came from Mexico in 1819 as sub-Lt. of Artillery under Jose Ramirez. Became a wealthy land-owner in county. Daughter married Don Mariano Malarin who used building as summer home and entertained lavishly. In 1903 it was remodeled and opened as a boarding house by Mrs. Glotzbach with 25 rooms. In 1922 purchased by Dr. McAuley and converted to a hospital.

Description: Very large two-story street-corner townhouse built more on plan of the Santa Barbara houses than the Monterey type. Original building had red tile roof and wrought iron balconies at street front and windows. Two-story recessed veranda at Webster St. entrance. Remodeled bldg. has main entrance on Obrego. CAL-140-1 shows first remodeling with bracketed cornice and hipped shingle roof with gable dormers at attic story. Cresting at roof ridge. CAL-140-2 shows bldg. with dormers removed and Victorian motif removed more in character with adobe construction.
